

VOLUME XXII.....NUMBER 173.

The Boston Journal.
The New England Family Newspaper

New Type and a New Press.
GREAT REDUCTION TO CLUBS!
PAYMENT INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

ENCOURAGED by the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed upon the JOURNAL, and in accordance with the spirit of the present age, the proprietor has decided to reduce the price of the Weekly Journal to Clubs, to the following rates:

One copy, one year, .....	$2.00
Two copies, one year, to one address, .....	3.00
Five copies, one year, to one address, .....	4.00

England, is the clearest proof of the estimation in which it is held by the community. It is our purpose now to greatly extend the circulation of the Weekly Journal. Preparatory to doing this we have

A New and Beautiful Type, with which to print it, and have also ordered one of Hoe's Six Cylinder Fast Presses,
with which we can print FIFTEEN THOUSANT COPIES IN A HOUR. This press will enable us to print more than twice as many numbers as our present ones, and yet to work off the edition in half the time for the mails. With this improvement in our printing, we shall be able to give our readers as handsome a paper as any published in our country. The general character of the paper has proved so acceptable that we shall attempt no change, except in the matter of price.

A Family Newspaper.
We intend that it shall be a complete record of the events of the age in which we live; that the attention of every reader of its pages shall be able to turn to every event of interest in politics, the art

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT will encourage the work of the young writers of the country, and the JOURNAL will get the cream of the Literature of the country, and be enabled to select from the best of the country what is most valuable for their readers, or their representatives at the shelves of their libraries.

THE MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENT will publish all material for the entertainment and instruction of our young friends—the children. The department is calculated to improve the mind as well as the heart, and is a feature they may desire to see in the Journal. It will be a prominent feature in the department.

THE BOSTON DAILY JOURNAL is published every morning, and every edition, as may be desired, is sent to subscribers by mail, in any part of the country, and is sent by express to the cities of New York and New Orleans. We are able to keep the Journal at the lowest price.

THE DAILY JOURNAL open several hours later than the other papers, and thus not infrequently receives the news from the telegraph before the other papers are in the market. THE DAILY JOURNAL is more than double the size of any other paper published in this city, and is sold at two cent paper per copy.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY JOURNAL is published on Wednesdays and Saturdays, and is sold at one cent per copy.

BOSTON JOURNAL FOR CALIFORNIA is printed on the 4th and 19th of each month, and is mailed to the subscribers of the 5th and 20th. It is made up with the greatest care for the information of the readers in California, and is published by the JOURNAL OFFICE. THE JOURNAL FOR CALIFORNIA is now published monthly, and is sold at one cent per copy. It is mailed to the subscribers of the 5th and 20th of each month, and is sold at one cent per copy. It is mailed to the subscribers of the 5th and 20th of each month, and is sold at one cent per copy.
